

ASSEMBLER

Experienced assembler with the ability to place small components on printed circuit boards (thru-hole parts). Ability to identify parts and work from printed instructions and samples. Involves hand soldering and QC of own work. Must pay close attention to details and have the ability to work on different types of jobs. Must be able to work well with others.

QC INSPECTOR

Experienced QC Inspector/Assembler that will inspect printed circuit boards and assemblies. Must be able to place small components on printed circuit boards. Must be able to identify parts and work from printed instructions and samples. Must be able to repair boards, which includes soldering and de-soldering skills. Must be able to work with minimum supervision.

FINAL ASSEMBLY / SPECIAL PROCESS OPERATOR

Machine operator of various equipment used in electronic assembly including wave solder, auto inserter, conformal coating, and various custom-built machines. Will perform final assembly of electronic components.

Requirements include experience in mechanical assembly, electronic assembly, and maintenance of process equipment. Looking for a self-starter that can work with minimum supervision.

About EDM:

EDM is an employee-owned company with a very strong financial position. We benefit from very long-term relationships with our customers and our employees. We offer excellent pay and benefits including: vacation, health insurance, long-term disability, group life insurance, 401K, bonus and profit sharing plans, as well as an excellent work environment.

For consideration, email resume to pcowart@edmva.com

No phone calls or office visits, please.